

Theodore Draper

March 22, 1993

Dear Mr. Aftergood:

I was delighted to get your letter of March 16, 1993, and the pages from the 1966 executive session of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. I wish Castro and Guevara could read them and learn that I knew them so well. I am deeply indebted to you for a good laugh.

Sincerely,
