ORDER

(December 9, 2013)

In its December 6, 2013 Order, this Court denied in part and held in abeyance in part Defendant's Sixth Motion to Compel. This Order further requested that the Government file a supplemental brief addressing (1) whether the Court was correct in presuming that the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] was prepared by individuals with access to the [REDACTED] Report, and (2) why a list of anyone who drafted this document prior to the cut-off time should not be disclosed to Defendant as relevant and helpful in identifying additional individuals with access to the intelligence at issue.

The Government has now filed this supplemental brief addressing these two issues. On the first question, the Government informs the Court that after consultation with [REDACTED] [REDACTED], it has determined that the Court is correct in presuming that the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] was prepared by individuals with access to the [REDACTED] Report.

As to the second question of why a list of anyone who drafted this document prior to the cut-off time should not be disclosed to Defendant, the Government further informs the Court that based on usual practice, the intelligence report officers who worked on the [REDACTED] Report would have prepared the [REDACTED]. In this case, this would imply that [REDACTED] [REDACTED] worked on the [REDACTED]
