Dear Mr. Aftergood:

This letter is in response to your Freedom of Information Act request dated May 31, 2007. We have searched the files of the Office of Legal Counsel and have found no documents within the scope of your request.

If you are not satisfied with my action on this request, you may administratively appeal this denial by writing to the Director, Office of Information and Privacy, United States Department of Justice, Washington, D.C. 20530-0001, within 60 days of your receipt of this letter. Both the envelope and the letter should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Farris:

This is a request under the Freedom of Information Act.

We request a copy of OLC records generated in 2007 in response to an inquiry submitted by J. William Leonard, the Director of the Information Security Oversight Office (ISOO).

The inquiry was submitted by Mr. Leonard to OLC, pursuant to section 6.2(b) of executive order 13292, seeking an interpretation of the reporting responsibilities of the Office of the Vice President under that executive order.

I request a fee waiver, on grounds that the subject matter is one of public interest. But if fee waiver is denied, I hereby agree to pay assessable fees up to $50.

Thank you for your assistance.

Yours sincerely,
