(U) DECLASSIFICATION DETERMINATION (U)

I have determined, pursuant to section 142c of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, that the following information can be published without undue risk to the common defense and security of the United States, and can, therefore, be declassified and removed from the category of Restricted Data:

General gas boost reservoir technology (i.e., clean sweep, equilibrium, helium-3, filtering, and solid storage) on specified weapons.

NOTE: Boost gas quantities, composition, and engineering details would remain classified.
